1. 前因部分

前因背景
铺垫

What were you doing at first?

Why did you go to the place?

Did someone recommend it?

What made you want to go there?

1. 前因部分

This topic reminds me of the wonderful shopping service that I received in a florist shop of my city last spring.

In fact, my mom had often complained that I never gave her flowers on Mother's Day, so I decided to finally make it right. At that time, I chose a nearby florist shop which has a pretty high rating online, then I went there by myself, wanting to choose something heartfelt.

2. 经过部分

- Following that... / For the following step,...
- Moments later / Several minutes later,...

其余连接方式:

- ✿ interestingly / surprisingly / unexpectedly
- ✿ it turned out that...
- ✿ out of curiosity / out of satisfaction

2. 经过部分

As soon as I entered, a young shop assistant approached me with a warm smile. Sensing my hesitation, she patiently asked about my mom's preferences and then explained the symbolism behind the flowers —like roses for love and lilies for purity.

Following that, I asked for something elegant, she suggested a mix of burgundy and white roses, saying these can show gratitude and admiration. Her advice was so thoughtful!

What impressed me the most was when I paid for the bouquet, she included a handwritten card and a dried-flower bookmark for free.

3. 结果感受

- Afterwards / In the end, _____, which was really a light-hearted memory.
- On the whole, this particular experience made me feel _____.

3. 结果感受

- In the end, when I gave that bouquet to my mom, she was overjoyed —finally, no complaints! Also, the shop assistant's warmth and rich knowledge in flowers gave me such a light-hearted memory.
